Academic and Other Posts

Redesignated as regulations by Council on 11 July 2002

E. P. Abraham Professor of Chemical Pathology

[Amended by Council on 10 July 2008]

1. The University has accepted with deep gratitude the sum of £430,000 from the Trustees of the E. P. Abraham Research Fund for the endowment of an E. P. Abraham Professorship of Chemical Pathology in the Sir William Dunn School of Pathology and for the provision of supporting costs for the professorship.
2. The E.P. Abraham Professor of Chemical Pathology shall undertake research in Chemical Pathology and shall lecture and give instruction in this subject.
3. The professor shall be elected by an electoral board consisting of:
  - (1) the Vice-Chancellor, or if the head of the college specified in paragraph (2) below is the Vice-Chancellor, a person appointed by Council;
  - (2) the head of the college to which the professorship may be allocated by Council from time to time, or if the head is unable or unwilling to act, a person appointed by the governing body of that college;
  - (3) a person appointed by the governing body of the college;
  - (4), (5) two persons appointed by Council;
  - (6)–(8) three persons appointed by the Medical Sciences Board;
  - (9) a person appointed by the Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences Board.
4. Such part of the income of the endowment as the General Board shall determine is not required to meet the cost of the professorship shall be applied to the provision of supporting expenditure for the professor in such manner as the Board of the Faculty of Physiological Sciences shall direct, provided that the professor, subject to the approval of the Head of the Sir William Dunn School of Pathology, may personally authorise expenditure in any single academic year up to a limit to be determined from time to time by the Board of the Faculty of Physiological Sciences with the approval of the General Board.
5. Council shall have power, subject to the concurrence of the Trustees of the E. P. Abraham Research Fund, to amend this decree, provided always that the maintenance of the E. P. Abraham Professorship of Chemical Pathology shall remain the first charge on the income of the endowment.
