

Council Regulations 25 of 2002

Trusts

Redesignated as regulations by Council on 11 July 2002

Nissan Fund for Japanese Studies

1. The University has accepted with deep gratitude a benefaction of £1,500,000 from the Nissan Motor Company of Japan as an endowment for the furtherance of Japanese studies in the University, principally by the establishment of posts in the subject and the foundation of an Institute of Japanese Studies to be located at St Antony's College.
2. The benefaction shall be applied to these objects in such ways as Council in consultation with the General Board shall determine.
