

Council Regulations 25 of 2002

Trusts

Redesignated as regulations by Council on 11 July 2002

Oxford Project for Peace Studies

1. Upon the kind invitation of the retiring trustees, the University consents to be and act as sole trustee of the charitable trust deed of 21 December 1982 of the Oxford Project for Peace Studies in place of the retiring trustees, who upon their retirement are discharged from the trusts of the charitable trust deed.
2. The Committee for the Cyril Foster and Related Funds shall be the board of management of the trust funds associated with the Oxford Project for Peace Studies and shall apply the trust funds in accordance with the charitable trust deed.
3. Council shall have power from time to time to alter this decree provided that the purposes of the trust funds, as stated in the charitable trust deed, shall always be kept in view.
